A-Z FUNDRAISING

Auction - contact local shops and invite all your friends and family to a charity auction.

Awareness Days - coincide your event with International Childhood Cancer Day on the 15th of February or during Childhood Cancer Awareness Month in September.

Art challenge - Register and donate a minimum of £5 to participate. Create a piece of art and submit it for the chance of it being exhibited and/or auctioned.

Bake Sale - unleash your inner Mary Berry! Get baking and sell your creations in your office or at school.

Bingo - who will be be first to check off all their numbers at bingo night?

Bowl-a-thon - get participants to donate in order to sign up.

Coffee Morning - hold a Coffee Morning at work in exchange for donations! Why not combine with a bake sale to really maximise your total?

Cocktail Night - mix up your favourite drinks in a charity cocktail evening.

Car Boot Sale - encourage your neighbourhood to declutter their house!

Cooking Class - get participants to donate when signing up.

Dinner Party - show off your culinary skills and invite all your friends to donate what they would pay in a restaurant.

Dance - hire a local venue and dance the night away, charging for entry. Why not up the ante and have a dance off competition as well?

Dress Down Day - who doesn’t love an excuse to be casual!

eBay for Charity - sell any unwanted items on eBay, and donate a percentage of your sales to charity.

Easter Egg Hunt - get children and adults involved and charge for entry!
Hair Shave - if you're feeling brave, why not shave your head to raise both money and awareness for children with cancer all over the world.

Hamper - create a hamper full of goodies and raffle or auction it off at your fundraising event.

International Day - host an event, such as a dinner party, and showcase one of the countries where we work.

It's a Knockout! - organise a grown-ups sports day, and provide an incentive by getting local businesses to donate prizes worth fighting for!

Jewellery Making - follow in the footsteps of mothers of children with cancer in Ghana, and learn how to make Jewellery, then sell it to all of your friends.

Jumble Sale - have a clear out at home and sell what you don't need for charity!

Karaoke Night - put those vocal chords to the test and get your friends together for a night of belting out the classics! Maybe you could even charge for ear plugs!

Krispy Kreme Sale - Krispy Kreme will sell doughnuts for a fantastic price if you're doing an event for charity!

Give it up! - can you not live without chocolate, coffee or cigarettes? Give your biggest vice up for a month, or even a year, and be sponsored for it!

Games Night - whether its board or console games, host a night full of challenges with friends or colleagues.

Guess The Baby Competition - sharing baby photos can prove to be a very entertaining fundraising event!
Obstacle Course - take a look at the many challenge events on our website, and sign up to take on a whole new kind of challenge.

Orange Day - showcase our official charity colour and dress in every possible orange item you can find!

Office Social - why not turn your office socials into an office fundraiser event? Each person that attends can make a small donation to charity.

Pancake Party - host a pancake party on Shrove Tuesday. Include a pancake toss competition or pancake race and ask for donations.

Pyjama Party - re-live the days of sleepovers and have a pamper evening in your pyjamas!

Plant A Community Garden - do something that's good for the environment and get participants to donate when they sign up.

Movie Night - why not host a movie night and sell tickets to friends? You could even charge for popcorn and snacks!

Marathon Events - take a look on our website to see if we have any spaces in a marathon near you.

Meatless Dinner Party - if you're keen to hold an environmentally friendly fundraiser, why not encourage everyone to go meat free?

Matched Giving - whether your raising money in the office or outside of work, ask your employer about matched giving.

Netball Tournament - organise a match between friends or get even more people involved and host a tournament! Charge for participation.

Name the... - whatever it is you choose, tap into people's competitive nature with a simple guessing game!

Obstacle Course - take a look at the many challenge events on our website, and sign up to take on a whole new kind of challenge.

Orange Day - showcase our official charity colour and dress in every possible orange item you can find!

Office Social - why not turn your office socials into an office fundraiser event? Each person that attends can make a small donation to charity.

Pancake Party - host a pancake party on Shrove Tuesday. Include a pancake toss competition or pancake race and ask for donations.

Pyjama Party - re-live the days of sleepovers and have a pamper evening in your pyjamas!

Plant A Community Garden - do something that's good for the environment and get participants to donate when they sign up.
Quiz Night - a popular option for fundraising because it's fun and easy to organise. Contact your local pub for a venue and come up with a load of questions. Why not organise a raffle or auction to raise even more!

Run - take part in a running event near you, whether it's a 5K or a marathon. Contact us to find out about places in events for all abilities!

Raffle - contact local businesses and raffle off your findings at your event or as a stand-alone fundraiser. Need help finding prizes? Contact us for tips!

Read-a-thon - make reading fun!

Skydive - get sponsored whilst ticking something off your bucket list in the ultimate challenge for an adrenaline-junkie! Contact us to find out more.

Sweepstake - is there a significant sporting event, such as a World Cup, coming up? Then why not have a family, friends, or office sweepstake?

School Picnic - get the whole school together for a meal outside!

Sponsored silence - if you're a chatterbox who finds being quiet a challenge, perhaps you could raise funds with a sponsored silence!

Tuck shop - run your own tuck shop and donate your profits to children with cancer. Why not put a New Year spin on the idea and sell healthy snacks to every one at work?

Talent Show - Organise a talent show at your school or work, and raise money through ticket sales.

University Challenge - challenge your rival school or university, or challenge different colleges and societies to take part in the ultimate academic quiz!

Uniform Free Day - dress down for the day and ditch your usual uniform. Charge everyone £1 to take part.
Valentine's Day - host a speed dating or singles night for your other single friends or even throw an alternative Valentine's Day event revolving around something else that you love.

Virtual Fundraiser - why not hold a virtual wine & cheese night or arrange a virtual yoga class!

World Record Attempt - have a go at breaking a world record, the wackier the better. Contact local press to get more support and publicity for your event!

Walk - is running not for you? Why not do a sponsored walk with your friends instead and get fit whilst raising money for charity.

Workout Classes - why not involve your pets too!

Xmas Fair - organise a Christmas fair and donate all proceeds to charity. Have a World Child Cancer stall with some of our merchandise and leaflets to spread the world about what we do!

Xbox/PlayStation/Console Night - why not host a charity gaming fundraiser? Simply invite people to play, for a donation to World Child Cancer.

Yoga-thon - try your hand at teaching your own yoga class and charge your pupils a small fee for taking part.

Year of challenges - whether you set yourself one big year-long challenge, or multiple challenges along the way, make it a year to remember and raise money at the same time.

Zumba-thon - get your local gym or sports centre involved, and ask attendees to donate the cost of a class. Alternatively join together with friends and ask for sponsorship.

Zip wire - why not do a zip wire for charity and encourage your friends to sponsor you!